Executive Summary

The Arc of Amador & Calaveras is a grassroots, nonprofit organization. Our mission is to provide support and services to people with developmental disabilities so they can better live, work, learn and recreate in the mainstream of life. Our service delivery area is Amador and Calaveras counties.

The Arc of Amador and Calaveras has been serving people with Developmental Disabilities since 1971 and was created by parents determined to ensure the most full and independent lives possible for their children with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

For 47 years, The Arc of Amador & Calaveras (aka The Arc) has been providing person-centered services to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. The Arc strives to build community relationships and deepen our impact to persons served. Community partners and natural support play a critical role in shaping the lives of people with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities.

The Arc continues to empower people to live full and included lives in their communities by offering community service, employment, recreation, and supported living services as well as skills training to adults with disabilities in various programs. The Arc prides itself on the outreach efforts to provide community integration, education and inclusion of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. We continue to advocate for improved services, community awareness, increased public transportation, employment opportunities and residential options for our community.

The Arc of Amador and Calaveras is a widely recognized and respected resource for individuals with intellectual disabilities in promoting and improving the quality of life for them and their families.

Dear Ms. Gregorius:

It is my pleasure to inform you that The Arc of Amador and Calaveras has been issued CARF accreditation based on its recent survey. The Three-Year Accreditation applies to the following service(s):

Community Employment Services: Employment Supports
Community Employment Services: Job Development
Community Integration

This accreditation will extend through December 31, 2018. This achievement is an indication of your organization's dedication and commitment to improving the quality of the lives of the persons served. Services, personnel, and documentation clearly indicate an established pattern of conformance to standards.

The survey report is intended to support a continuation of the quality improvement of your organization's service(s). It contains comments on your organization's strengths as well as any consultation and recommendations. A quality improvement plan (QIP) demonstrating your organization's efforts to implement the survey recommendation(s) must be submitted within the next 90 days to retain accreditation. The QIP form is posted on Customer Connect (customerconnect.carf.org), CARF's secure, dedicated website for accredited organizations and organizations seeking accreditation. Please log on to Customer Connect and follow the guidelines contained in the QIP form.

Your organization should take pride in achieving this high level of accreditation. CARF will recognize this accomplishment in its listing of organizations with accreditation and encourages your organization to make its accreditation known throughout the community. Communication of the accreditation to your referral and funding sources, the media, and local and federal government officials can promote and distinguish your organization. Enclosed are some materials that will help you publicize this achievement.

Your organization's complimentary accreditation certificate will be sent separately. You may use the enclosed form to order additional certificates.

If you have any questions regarding your organization's accreditation or the QIP, you are encouraged to seek support from John Hannon by email at jhannon@carf.org or telephone at (888) 281-6531, extension 7198.
