Correction Notice: In our July 2022 issue of The Arc Informer, we submitted an article by Ashely Penrod, describing her time with Horses of Warriors. Due to multiple editorial errors, we are submitting the corrected article below.

Horses of Warriors

I decided years ago that I wanted to ride a horse but I wasn't able to find a place to go to until my friend Melanie told me about a place in Jamestown, called "Horses of Warriors". Horses of Warriors is a 120 acre privately owned ranch where veterans, law enforcement, and first responders can take riding lessons to learn all aspects of horsemanship. Horses of Warriors is 100% free and teaches you how to work with animals in the arena, put up fences, and much more. I fell in love with the ranch the minute I saw it. The ranch is big and has a total of 17 horses. This was an opportunity for me to learn how to ride and care for a horse. This was a vocational training program to further advance one's self-worth. I now know how to feed, brush and care for a horse. Last week I learned how to get on the horse, I did have a little trouble getting off but I will keep trying.

Giddy up!

Cowgirl Ashley.
