Christmas in Germany
By Zack

I visited Germany for Christmas last year. They have a Christmas market with lots of stores where you can buy presents. It is all nice and decorated. They had pretty trees all decorated with lights and ornaments. At the outside market there were hotdogs and drinks. They were so good! You can go have fun there too! They have a lot of different kinds of Christmas music. We got to dance and sing together. My sister and I had so much fun visiting another country during the holiday. We stayed in a nice hotel. I even got to see a German police and fire truck. They even have an ambulance!

2023!

We all get together to go out and buy a Christmas tree the day after Thanksgiving. Our whole family goes, Elyse her parents her brother his family and I. After we get the tree we get together and talk about what we would like Santa to bring us for the big special night. We get so excited about the big special night! When we get home, we bring the tree in the house. We all help Elyse's mom bring up the decorations from the basement. Then we start decorating the tree, and the whole house while listening to Christmas music. On December 24th Elyse's mom makes two yummy soups and she puts out snacks. We help her bring up toys and hang the stockings. This year I'll suggest we drink hot coco.

Christmas at Disney

I love Disney Land, and all the characters there. My dream is to go there during Christmas! I would love to see all the characters dressed up for the holidays! Donald Duck is my favorite character! I bet the castle looks really pretty too!
